RESIDENT UNDERGRADUATE TUITION WILL REMAIN FLAT FOR THE SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

The Idaho State Board of Education today approved requests from each of Idaho's four-year institutions to hold current resident undergraduate tuition rates in place for 2021/22 academic year, marking the second consecutive year that the resident undergraduate rate will not increase.

"This is a recognition that the State Board, and our institution presidents are committed to doing everything we can to make sure an Idaho college education is one of the most affordable in the country," State Board President Kurt Liebich said.

The Board did approve Idaho State University's request to increase its resident graduate tuition by 4 percent and its non-resident tuition by 3.4 percent.

The Board approved a $36 per year consolidated mandatory student fee increase put forth by the University of Idaho at the request of student leadership groups.

The Board also approved Lewis-Clark State College's request establishing tuition for its new graduate level nursing program launching in Coeur d'Alene.
